PROSPECTUS

OF THE

ALTOONA TRIBUNE.

For 1858.

THE CASH SYSTEM ADOPTED!

The Cheapest Paper in the County!

With the present number, the Tribune has entered upon its third volume. Commenced at a time when the confidence of the citizens of Altoona in newspapers and newspaper publishers was considerably shaken, if not totally annihilated, it has slowly but surely restored that confidence, and now stands upon a sure foundation, and is universally acknowledged to be one of the fixed institutions of our town. But this result has not been achieved without a hard struggle, and considerable expenditure of time and means on the part of its editors. The steady increase of patronage, however, has afforded indubitable evidence that their labors have been appciated.

In entering upon the new volume it is almost unnecessary to say that the Tribune will continue to be "INDEPENDENT IN EVERYTHING," being biassed neither by fear, favor nor affection, in favor of parties or sects. In this respect it is only necessary to say that the past affords a fair index as to our future course.

It has always been our aim to make the Tribune, a reliable first-class LOCAL PAPER, as we believe that in that character alone, country papers can successfully compete with their flashy city neighbors. To this end we have secured correspondents in various parts of the county, who furnish us with all the items of local interest in their vicinity. We purpose adding others to our list as soon as we can obtain them. During the next year we shall redouble our efforts to make the Tribune a perfect compendium of HOME NEWS—A RELIABLE, FIRST-CLASS LOCAL PAPER, second to none in the country, and as such a welcome weekly visitor to our patrons, whether at home or abroad.

But while the Local Department shall be our special care, we shall also devote a considerable space to LITERARY MATTER, FUN AND HUMOR, and the chronicling of events of general interest to our readers. We purpose also publishing from time to time "Original Sketches of Men and Things" which will be furnished by our contributors. We have made arrangements also to have a weekly letter from Philadelphia, and judging from the reputation our correspondent sustains as a popular writer, these letters will be a rich treat to our readers.

As we are decidedly journalists of the progressive school, we have concluded to adopt the cash system in our business. The neglect of quite a number of our patrons to pay up promptly, and the rascality of others, has compelled us to adopt this course. Time and experience has fully proved to our satisfaction that the credit system will not work with newspaper publishers. From this date no paper will be sent from this office, unless paid for in advance, and at the expiration of the time paid for, if not renewed, will be promptly stopped. This arrangement does no injustice to our patrons, while it will protect us from the impositions of soulless scoundrels, and enable us to devote more attention to our paper.

Recognising, the principle that contracts to be satisfactory should be fraught with mutual benefit to both parties, and as money in large amounts, in advance, is of more value to us than when received in driblets, as an inducement to numbers who would otherwise discontinue, as well as to those who have never yet taken the paper, we offer it at the following low rates for the coming year:

1 copy, one year		$1 50
10 copies "	($1.25 per copy)	12 50
20 " "	($1.00 per copy)	20 00

and all above 20 at the same rate—$1 per copy.

The money must, in all cases, accompany the order.

By the above it will be seen that our paper is emphatically the cheapest in the county.—As to its merits we leave in to the public to decide. We earnestly request our friends throughout the county to "give as a lift," as we have no doubt each of them can readily obtain a club in their neighborhood.

CANVASSERS WANTED.—Several energetic business men wanted to canvass the county for subscribers to the Tribune. A liberal per centage will be allowed.

Select Miscellany.

From the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

The New Rochelle Blackberry.

Dear Doctor—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years. We think no one will be surprised at our good opinion of it when we inform them that the above cut gives a fair representation of the actual size, as well as of the general appearance of a cluster of berries, no larger than many we have seen, handled and tasted.

ORIGIN.

It is a new and perfectly distinct variety, and not the common kind improved by cultivation. It originated near New Rochelle, New York, and was first brought into notice by Mr. Seacor, who is much better entitled to the name of it than the gentleman who for pecuniary advantages wishes it to be called the Lawton.

The shape of the fruit, it will be seen, is not that of the wild blackberry, but resembles the Hovey's Seedling strawberry. We are inclined to the opinion that it is an accidental cross of the common blackberry and the dewberry. We have been led to this conclusion from the following considerations. The first year the plants trail on the ground, very much like the dewberry, but afterwards they grow upright ty very stoutly, from ten to fifteen high. The shape of the fruit is not mulberry like, as the common blackberry is, but resembles the dewberry, though it is much larger, and when perfectly ripe the flavor is quite equal.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE PLANT AND FRUIT.

The plants are very hardy and vigorous,—more so than the common varieties,—and stand the cold well. The fruit is juicy and fine flavored, with very few seeds.—The size can hardly be appreciated by those who have seen only the common kinds.—Of about the average size, sixty to eighty berries will fill a quart measure; while of those a little above the medium from forty to fifty will do the same. An inch to an inch and a half may be set down as the average diameter, though larger berries are quite common.

SEASON.

They commence ripening about the middle of July, and continue from five to eight weeks. This is most opportune. Ripening as they do just at the season when there are no other fruits—when the strawberry and raspberry crops have been exhausted, and peaches and grapes have not yet appeared—blackberries could not well be dispensed with, especially when we take into consideration their medicinal and beneficial effects upon the system during the hot season.

PRODUCTIVENESS.

The yield is enormous. One of the editors of the New York Tribune says:—"We received a few days since an invitation from Mr. George Seymour to visit his nursery and view several acres in bearing. We arrived on the ground about 10 A. M., in company with a number of ladies and gentlemen, who immediately began to insinuate themselves among the bushes, which were standing very thickly, and all well laden with fruit. Astonishment seized the party, and while viewing the gorgeous display we for a time forgot to taste the tempting berries. The bushes had occupied this field for two years, and were well supplied with side shoots, all loaded with berries in every stage, from the smallest to the largest ripe blackberry, and they were blackberries! Those wonderful berries produced on the mountain, or by the old stone wall on the homestead farm, which produced so fine a flavor in our youthful days, lost all the deliciousness ascribed to them by a lingering memory when we had tasted a few of the fully ripe New Rochelles. Shall we say how many bushels of fine fruit are taken from an acre? We dare not. We had with us several horticulturists who are engaged in supplying New York with fine fruits. They counted the berries on several bushes, measured them in baskets, and they were so astonished at the amount which it might be possible to grow on an acre, that they dared not to repeat it to the uninitiated in the wonders of fruit growing. We had learned from circulars that from four to eight quarts were produced by single canes, and that 500 to 1000 ripe berries were to be counted on a cane of average size; we found one cane having over 1600! Sent to the city in quart boxes, they bring 30 cents at wholesale! Raspberry baskets filled with these berries will sell for 15 cents, and the retailers get whatever they choose to ask. Judging from the present demand, we believe 500 acres may be planted to this blackberry, and the whole results sent to the New York market, they would fail of being plentiful enough to be within the reach of all. In fact we do not believe the market can well be overstocked."

SOIL.

They appear so far, to grow well on almost any soil. Some cultivators recommend moist loam, or even clay. We have them planted on very rich and poor soil. We gathered some of our best berries last season from the poor soil. The editor of the Agriculturist says: "The best growth and fruiting we have seen is upon a rocky side hill, though perhaps not better than others on dark muck and peaty soil."

Lest it might be thought that we overrate this famous fruit, we will add the opinions of a few gentlemen who are every way competent to form a correct judgment of its merits.

Mr. Charles Downing, in the Horticulturist, thus speaks of it:

"Having heard a good deal said about the New Rochelle Blackberry, for the past year or two, and knowing that many of the new fruits were over praised, I made a special visit, a few days since, to see for myself, and I can assure you I was well paid for my trouble. There is no humbug about it, and the only wonder is that it has not been more generally introduced and propagated before. The fruit is large and sweet. It is an enormous bearer; indeed the quantity (considering the large size of the fruit,) surprised me, and the berries were perfect."

"As to its size, it will surprise most persons who see it for the first time. At Norwalk we saw several stalks bearing from five to eight quarts, each. We tried some that had been gathered over forty hours, and found the flavor quite good. A quart of them numbered seventy-one berries.—We picked a quart from vines which had received no manure for two years past, and from which the largest had just been selected for the New Haven Horticultural Society, and found that seventy-two of them filled a quart measure.

"The vines grow quite large—many of them over an inch in diameter, and the fruit hangs in clusters, in size more like very large Green Gage Plums, than like the ordinary Blackberry. The flavor is not apparently diminished by its large size, and the few seeds is not its least recommendation. We think this berry a valuable acquisition to our domestic fruits, and worthy of a place in every garden.—American Agriculturist.

"We alluded the other day to the cultivated berries, called the New Rochelle, raised by Mr. George Seymour, at South Norwalk. They are not the wild Blackberry, but a peculiar variety by themselves. They grow to four times the size of the common berry, have a delicious flavor, yield abundantly, are hardy, easily raised and remain in bearing some six weeks.—This fruit will be a great accession to our list of common berries, and deserves the attention of our citizens, who are conspicuous for the variety and excellence of their horticultural productions."—New Haven Journal, 1856.

Much more might be said in truth in favor of this fruit, but we trust enough has been said to induce all your readers, who have an opportunity, to try it for themselves.

A GRAPHIC PICTURE.—The following, from one of the Hong Kong papers, furnishes a brief, but truly graphic picture of the attack upon the city of Canton: "During the brief pauses, everything was still as death in the city—no shouting, or sounds of confusion; not a human being was to be seen either on the city side or on Honam, but it seemed as if the stern form of the Destroying Angel was crouching over the fated and unhappy city, awing his victims into silence. The shells were whirling through the air, their track marked by the fizzing of their fuses, twinkling like stars during their revulsions, till at last, arriving at their destination, there was a flash and an explosion which told how accurately and fearfully these engines of destruction do their work. Some of these shells reached even to Gough's Fort, and fragments were found there the following day. The rockets, too, seemed to be hissing about in every direction, and the elliptical shell from the French ships caused no little astonishment as they hurried through the air with a noise not unlike that of an immense humming top. The scene was one replete with awe, and dreadful must have been the sufferings of the poor people thus made to answer for the sins of their rulers."

REMARKABLE WORKS OF HUMAN LABOR.—Ninevah was 15 miles long, 8 wide, and 40 miles round, with a wall 100 feet high, and thick enough for three chariots abreast. Babylon was 40 miles within the walls, which were 75 feet thick and 300 feet high, with 100 brazen gates—The temple of Diana, at Ephesus, was 429 feet to the support of the roof. It was a hundred years in building. The largest of the pyramids is 481 feet high, and 653 on the sides; its base covers 11 acres.—The stones are about 30 feet in length, and the layers are 208. It employed 330,000 men in building. The labyrinth of Egypt contains 300 chambers, and 12 halls. Thebes, in Egypt, presents ruins 27 miles round, and 100 gates. Carthage was 22 miles round Athens was 25 miles round, and contained 359,000 citizens and 400,000 slaves. The temple of Delphos was so rich in donations, that it was plundered of $500,000, and Nero carried away from it 200 statues. The walls of Rome were 12 miles round.

A Beautiful Story.

I witnessed a short time ago, in one of our higher courts, a beautiful illustration of the simplicity and power of truth. A little girl nine years of age was offered as a witness against a prisoner, who was on trial for felony committed in her father's house.

'Now, Emily,' said the counsel for the prisoner, upon her being offered as a witness, 'I desire to understand if you know the nature of an oath?'

'I don't know what you mean,' was the simple answer.

'There, your honor,' said the counsel, addressing the court, 'is anything farther necessary to demonstrate the validity of my objections? This witness should be rejected. She does not comprehend the nature of an oath.'

'Let us see,' said the judge; 'come here my daughter.'

Assured by the kind tone and manner of the judge, the child stepped towards him, and looked confidentially up into his face with a calm clear eye, and in a manner so artless and frank that it went straight to the heart.

'Did you ever take an oath?' inquired the judge.

The little girl stepped back with a look of horror, and the red blood mantled in a blush all over her face and neck, as she answered, 'no sir.' She thought he intended to inquire if she had ever blasphemd.

'I do not mean that,' said the judge, who saw her mistake. 'I mean were you ever a witness before?'

'No sir; I never was in Court before.' He handed her the Bible open.

'Do you know that book my daughter?'

She looked at it and answered, 'Yes, sir; it is the Bible.'

'Do you ever read it?' he asked.

'Yes sir; every evening.'

'Can you tell me what the Bible is?' inquired the judge.

'It is the word of the great God,' she answered.

'Well, place your hand upon this Bible, and listen to what I say; and he repeated slowly and solemnly the oath usually administered to witnesses. 'Now,' said the judge, 'you have been sworn as a witness, will you tell me what will befall you if you do not tell the truth?'

'I shall be shut up in the State prison,' answered the child.

'Anything else?' asked the judge.

'I shall never go to heaven,' she replied.

'How do you know?' asked the judge again.

The child took the Bible, and turning rapidly to the chapter containing the commandments, pointed to the injunction, 'Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.' 'I learned that,' she said, 'before I could read.'

'Has any one talked with you about your being a witness in court here against this man?' inquired the judge.

'Yes sir,' she replied. 'My mother heard they wanted me to be a witness, and last night she called me to her room and asked me to tell her the ten commandments, and then we knelt down together, and she prayed that I might understand how wicked it was to bear false witness against my neighbor, and that God would help me, a little child, to tell the truth as it was before him. And when I came up here with father, she kissed me, and told me to remember the ninth commandment, and that God would hear every word I said.

'Do you believe this?' asked the judge, while a tear glistened in his eye, and his lips quivered with emotion.

'Yes sir,' said the child, with a voice and manner that showed her conviction of the truth was perfect.

'God bless you my child,' said the judge, you have a good mother. 'This witness is competent,' he continued. 'Were I on trial for my life, and innocent of the charge against me, I would pray God for such a witness as this. Let her be examined.'

She told her story with the simplicity of a child, as she was, but there was a directness about it which carried conviction of its truth to every heart. She was rigidly cross-examined. The counsel plied her with infinite and ingenious questioning, but she varied from her first statement in nothing. The truth as spoken by that child was sublime. Falsehood and perjury had preceded her testimony.—The prisoner hed entrenched himself in lies, until he deemed himself impregnable. Witnesses had falsified facts in his favor, and villany had manufactured for him a sham defence, but before her testimony, falsehood was scattered like chaff. The little child, for whom a mother had prayed for strength to be given her to speak the truth as it was before God, broke the cunning devices of matured villany to pieces like a potter's vessel. The strength that the mother had prayed for was given her, the sublime and terrible simplicity (terrible I mean to the prisoner and his perjured associates,) with which she spoke, was like a revelation from God himself.

☞ Sentiments join man to man, opinions divide them.

Cheating the Devil.

Squire H., lived in the town of A., was a man in easy circumstances, with every thing enough, in doors and out. In his yard was a huge pile of wood, sawed and split, and sufficient in bulk to keep a dozen families through the winter, with enough more where that came from.

Across the street from Squire H., lived Mrs. W., a poor widow woman in straightened circumstances, with four mouths to feed and four little bodies to warm besides her own.

Squire H., doted on his big wood pile, and was in the habit of taking a peep at it through the closed blinds of his window before retiring at night. One night he saw a female hanging around the pile, and opening the door partially, to get a better view, saw her stoop, pick up a large armful and start off. She had not proceeded far, however, when she stopped short, and he overheard the following: "I cannot steal—the eye of God is upon me;" and down went the wood and she walked off a few steps and stopped again. "I have not a stick of wood in the house; the weather is bitter cold, and my poor children are freezing. The Squire has enough, and will never miss it." So saying, she filled her arms again with the coveted fuel.

Again she started and again hesitated—"What, steal? I never before did such a thing, and God forbid I should do it now!" and down went the wood upon the pile again. But the thought of her suffering brood brought her once more to the pile, and she filled her arms the third time with wood. Once more she started and again turned back—"I will not steal—I will trust in God, and if it is His will, we'll perish together." So saying, she threw the wood upon the pile and the Squire saw her enter her dwelling and close the door. He retired to bed, but slumber was slow in visiting his eyelids. He thought of the poor widow and her suffering children, and perhaps when he slept he dreamed of them.

Early the next forenoon, widow W., was surprised to see the Squire's four ox team, loaded with wood, hauled up in front of her dwelling and the Squire commenced pitching it off.

"What's this, Squire H.!" said the astonished and half-frightened woman; "I didn't order that wood and God knows I can't pay for it."

"It's yours, and all paid for Ma'am!" sung out the Squire, tugging away at a big log. "You cheated the devil last night."

The poor woman insisted that there must be a mistake about it.

"I tell you it's yours, for cheating the devil last night," said the Squire, "and there comes a man to saw it up, split it and pack it away in your wood-house."

The widow began to "smell a rat," and stammering her thanks to the Squire, retreated into the house. She wanted for no more wood that winter.

SPEAKING WELL OF OTHERS.—The following article inculcates much good advice in a small space: If the disposition to speak well of others were universally prevalent, the world would become a comparative paradise. The opposite disposition is the Pandora-box, which, when opened, fills every neighborhood with pain and sorrow. How many enmities and heart-burnings flow from this source! How much happiness is interrupted and destroyed! Envy, jealousy, and malignant spirits of evil, when they find vent by the lips go forth on their mission like foul fiends, to blast the reputation and peace of others. Every one has his imperfections, and in the conduct of the best there will be occasional faults, which migh seem to justify animadversion. It is a rule, however, when there is occasion for fault finding, to do it privately to the erring one. This will prove salutary. It is a proof of interest in the individual, which will generally be taken kindly. If the manner of doing is not offensive. The common and unchristian rule, on the contrary, is to proclaim the failings of others to all but themselves. This is unchristian, and shows a despicable heart.

THIRST WORSE THAN HUNGER.—That disturbance of the general system which is known under the name of raging thirst, is far more terrible than that of starvation, and for this reason:—During abstinence from food, the organism can still live upon its substance, which furnishes all the necessary material; but, during abstinence from liquid the organism has no such source of supply within itself. Men have been known to endure absolute privation of food for some weeks, but three days of absolute privation of drink (unless in a moist atmosphere) is, perhaps, the limit of endurance. Thirst is the most atrocious torture ever invented by Oriental tyrants. It is that which most effectually tames animals. Mr. Astly, when he had a refractory horse, always used thirst as the most effective power of coercion, giving a little water as the reward of every act of obedience. The histories of shipwrecks paint fearful pictures of the sufferings endured from thirst; and one of the most appalling cases known is the celebrated imprisonment of one hundred and forty-six men in the Black Hole at Calcutta.

Dick Dailly's Speech.

Feller Citizens and Hosses:—This are a day for the poperlation of this Destrick, like a bob-tailed chicken on a rickety hen roost, to be lookin' up. A crisis have arriven and something's bust! War are we? Here I is, and I'd stand here and expirate from now till the day of synagogues, if you'd hoop for Daily.

Feller-Citizens—Jerusalem's to pay an we hain't got any pitch. Our hyperbolical and majestic canal of creation has unshipped her rudder, and the captain's broke his neck, and cook's div down to the depths of the vasty deep in search of dimuns!—Our wigwam's torn to pieces, like a shirt on a brush fence, and cities of these ere latitudes is vanishing in a blue flame. Are such things to be did! I ask you in the name of the American Eagle, who was whipped by the shaggy headed lion, and now sits on the magnetic telegraph, if such doings is going to be conglomerated? I repeat to you, in the name of the peacock of Liberty, when he's flowin over the cloud capped summits of the Rocky Mountains, is we going to be extemporaneously in this fashion?

"Oh! answer me,
Let me not blush in ignorance," as Shakespeel says. Shall we be bamboozlefied with such unmitigated unconsciousness? Methinks I hear you yell—"No, sir, hossfly!" Then, 'lect me to Congris, and there will be a revolution sartin.

Feller Citizens:—If I was standing on the adamantine throne of Jupiter, and the lightning was flashin' around me, I'd continue to spout. I'm full of boiling hot lather of Mount Etny, and I won't be quenched! I've sprung a leak and must howl like a bear with a sore head. Flop together—jump into ranks and bear me through.

Feller Cittizens:—You know me, and rib me out with a mill garb if I won't stick to yer like brick dust to a bar of soap.—Whar is my opponent? He's no whar! I was brought up among ye, feller citizens, and paped in a school house, but they can't get around me with there hifalutin big words. Hictum, strictum, albranto, catnip, Braszeel, Engloonev and Baffin's Bay—b-o-o-o-! What do you think of that.

"Go it, poker—root hog, or die!"

as Shakspeel said when Cæsar stabbed him in the House of Representatives.

Feller Citizens:—'Lect me to Congris, and I'll abolish mad dogs, muskeetors, bad cents and bad whiskey, and go in for the annihilation of niggers, campmeetin's and jails. I'll repubiate crow and fustiden hawk—I'll have poker playing every day, Sunday excepted, and liquor enough to swim in. Yes, fellow citizens, 'lect me to Congris and I shall be led to exclaim in the sublime, the terrific language of Bonyparte, when preaching in the wilderness—

"Richard's himself again."

"On, then, onward to the poll—"gallop apace, fiery footed steed," and make the welking tremble with anti-spasmodic yell for Daily.

"Hence, ye brutus, broad-axe and glory."

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.—On the 23d ultimo a passenger came to Portland by the steamer Anglo Saxon, and took lodgings at one of the city hotels. Next morning he took the cars for this city in company with a gentleman who had remained at the same house with him over night, with whose countenance he, somehow or other, imagined himself familiar. They got into conversation in coming down the Eastern railroad, but nothing transpired to elicit the fact whether or not they had been old acquaintances. When they arrived at the depot, and had attended to their luggage, one of the gentlemen inquired in the hearing of the other for a cab to take him to a certain street in Charlestown. The other said he purposed going to the same street, and the two engaged the same conveyance. On arriving at the street in question it appeared that they both designed to call on the same individual.—This strange series of coincidence greatly puzzled both; but their mutual surprise and delight can be imagined but in a degree when they found that they were brothers, and that they had thus singularly met at the house of a third brother. One of them has been in the service of the Pacha of Egypt for twenty-two years, the other has spent sixteen years in the East Indies, while the third has been in this country during nineteen years past. The brothers are natives of Scotland, and have not seen each other for twenty-four years. —Boston Ledger.

☞ While a party of Boston ladies and gentlemen were skating one day last week at Jamaica Pond, a young lady promised any man who could beat her across the pond a kiss. As the young lady was rather pretty, all started off, and at the end of the journey it was found that a young "darkey" was the winner. The lad says the lady gave the "buss" as though she was used to the business.

The Religious Excitement.

The excitement on the subject of religion which is extending throughout the country is, we believe, without a parallel. In the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Boston, Cincinnati and many others, together with numerous large towns and villages, daily prayer meetings are held and crowds attend them. The interest exhibited is strong and gathering power with every succeeding day. It is indeed a "great awakening," and assures us that the hand of God is in the work. Thousands who perhaps never before bent the knee in worship are now led to those daily meetings, and seasons of refreshing are enjoyed. Classes are unknown—for here you find the hard-fisted son of toil kneel with the man of wealth, you behold the rich lady in her silks prostrate with the humble and poorest of the poor—all bowing in meek subuiission in prayer to Jehovah.

The power of this movement is felt by all and a new light seems to be dawning upon the world. The man of business ceases from his care, the laborer from his toil, the lady leaves the vanities of life, the woman who earns her bread by toiling day and night leaves her needle, and all wend their way to the house of prayer.—And there, surrounding one common altar, forgetting their positions in society and looking not at the habiliments of their neighbors, they lift their voices in thankfulness, and their hymns of praise rise like incense to the throne of the Most High.

Well may we exclaim, what a change! and whence cometh it? It is not man's creation, for many good and mighty men have long striven to break down the pride of the people, but without success. The answer then must be, it comes from Him who "can work and no man can hinder."

The "excitement" has been attributed by some to the recent "financial crisis." If this be the true cause, we are indeed glad that we were afflicted as a nation, for whatever tends to make people better in a moral point of view is in reality no affliction, but on the contrary a rich blessing. If this is to be the result of that "crisis," none can regret it.

To show the feeling that exists at these prayer meetings, and the character of the persons who have been turned, it is to be hoped forever, from the error of their ways, through these instrumentalities we give a couple of extracts which we find in our exchanges. A correspondent writes from Newark, N. J., to the New York Tribune as follows:—

"What was my surprise, on last evening, on entering the Baptist Church in this city, to find among the seekers after grace old Wm. Harrington, known, I believe, among the men of his caste as "Boss" Harrington, one of the most notorious prize-fighters of the day. The old gentleman had been here on a visit, and was induced to attend the meetings for several evenings previous, until last night, I am happy to say that he professed justification by faith before the meeting closed. He was heard to say before the meeting closed, 'I have fought men all my life; the rest of it I will fight for Jesus.'"

The following extract is from a New York paper:—

"Awful Gardiner was present at the prayer meeting in the John street Methodist Church, Friday. He has a strong voice, which was distinctly heard in every part of the house. He said he was not ashamed to declare that his past life had not been what it should have been. He had tried all the amusements and pleasures of the world, but never found any real satisfaction in them, and had enjoyed himself more in one hour since his conversion than in all his former life. He wished it understood that he was on the Lord's side. The audience, he said, knew how faithfully he had served Satan heretofore, and he was determined to serve the Lord as faithfully in the future as he had the Devil in the past."

"Awful" Gardner, as most of our readers are aware was a notorious prize-fighter, and from his frequent participations in pugilistic encounters and his almost Herculean strength, he acquired the sobriquet of "Awful."

These "revivals" are not confined to any particular denomination, all alike share in the great ingathering of souls. One of our city religious exchanges computes the number of conversions which have occurred during the last three weeks to be about 70,000 from all denominations. Their list had reached over 17,000 when they were obliged, for want of room, to condense it, and discontinue further additions save from their own denomination,—striking out the Methodist portion entirely (as the next largest.) The whole number reported in that paper during the last two months reaches at least 40,000. The total of the following list during the last couple weeks, as abridged, is nearly 11,000 Maine; 202; New Hampshire, 103, Vermont, 93; Rhode Island, 226; Massachusetts, 716; Connecticut, 578; New York, 1,691; New Jersey, 357; Pennsylvania, 671; Ohio, 813; Illinois, 779; Indiana, 800; Michigan, 580; Iowa, 418; Wisconsin, 312; Mississippi, 180; Kentucky, 716; Georgia, 72; Tennessee, 370; Missouri, 600; Maryland, 277; Virginia, 160; Alabama, 25; District of Columbia, 3); Canada West, 23; Nova Scotia, 13.

The revival spirit extends beyond this continent. In England an unusual interest prevails, especially in London. Nor is the excitement in the least abating. It is now spreading throughout the country, and pervades almost every community. In our own town an effort is making to kindle the fire, and though the flame can not yet be discovered, we hope soon to see it burst forth in all the brightness of a noon-day sun. In most cases, heretofore, such extensive revivals have been the result of great efforts on the part of such men as Luther, Calvin, Westly and others, who stood a head and shoulders above their fellow laborers, but in this instance it appears to move on as successfully when attended only by the laity of the churches, as when preceded by the most eloquent appeals of learned divines. There is in this fact alone much subject for thought, and we sincerely hope it will induce those who have heretofore given but little attention to such matters, to give it that consideration which it deserves.

Printers Look Out!

A few days since we received an advertisement and circular from one Wm. E. Hoyt, of Syracuse, New York, a copy of which has no doubt been furnished to many other newspaper publishers, requesting the insertion of the advertisement at reasonable rates, and promising to pay at the end of three or six months. We warn all publishers to beware of this shark. By reference to our "Black List," they will observe the manner in which he has kept his promises with us. He gives a number of references, and among the rest several ministers. Now if those ministers have any regard for their reputations for truth and wish to save their credit, we advise them to withdraw their names from Mr. Hoyt's circular as speedily as possible, if, indeed, they ever authorized him to use them. When he pays up the "old score" with us, we shall be willing to enter into a new contract, provided he pays cash in advance, but on no other conditions. Those publishers who insert his card on the strength of the references given, must not complain, if after having been warned of his character, they do not receive their pay. It is time that publishers of newspapers should put a stop to this system of rascality, by promptly refusing to insert such advertisements unless accompanied by the cash, or the name of some person whom they know to be responsible. The fact that one publisher (who is eager to grab up anything in the shape of an advertisement,) inserts such a card, induces others to think that the person sending the card is known to that publisher and responsible, and thus many are humbugged. For our part we will hereafter publish no advertisements unless the cash accompanies them, or the parties sending them are known to us to be responsible.

RETIRED.—We are sorry to learn that our distinguished and jovial friend, J. S. Barr, familiarly known as "Yellow Moccasin," has retired from the editorial department of the Huntingdon American, and having packed his "Michigan Band-box," is now en route for the "wild West." We wish him a happy home and unbounded prosperity wherever he may locate.

☞ The April number of the Atlantic Monthly came too late for us to notice last week. As usual it is a recherche number, filled to overflowing with the choicest reading matter. The Atlantic Monthly is a perfect library in itself. We can't see how it can be published for the price, $3 per annum. Address Phillips, Sampson and Co., Boston.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call the attention of our readers to quite a string of new advertisements in to-day's paper.—Want of time prevents our noticing them at length. They shall be duly attended to next week.

☞ Checkered.—In a single building in Boston, last evening, there was a prayer meeting on one floor, a boxing exhibition in the room above, and a calico ball in the upper hall. A passage from one room of the edifice to another would have given a good illustration of Pope's line:

"From grave to gay, from lively to severe."

The Tonnage Tax.

Last week we published a communication, from the Harrisburg Keystone, in relation to the repeal of the Tonnage Tax on the Penna. R. R., which we considered replete with argument and deserving of the consideration of our Legislators and the public. If more evidence of the detrimental effects of this Tax upon the industrial interests of the middle and western portions of the State, it will be found in the following copy of a petition sent to the Legislature by the steamboat men of Pittsburg.—It is prefaced by an editorial from the Greensburg Democrat, a paper that has always heretofore opposed the repeal of the Tax:

The following is a copy of a petition sent to the Legislature, signed by all the Pittsburgh steamboat men, (with, perhaps one or more exceptions,) and presented by Judge Wilkins to the Senate a few days ago, in favor of a repeal of the Tonnage Tax on the Pennsylvania Railroad. This is certainly one of the strongest papers that has ever yet made its appearance on that subject; and although we have hitherto been opposed to the repeal of the tax, yet if the facts stated in this memorial be true, and we have no reason to doubt that they are, and the Railroad Company will make a corresponding reduction in the rates of freight, we are free to say that this petition of our Western Pennsylvania steamboat men should receive that careful and honest Legislative attention to which it is entitled, and in consideration of the subject should receive its just weight,

"To the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: The undersigned, captains, and owners of steamboats, running from the port of Pittsburg on the Western rivers respectfully represent to the Legislature that their business is languishing, a majority of their freights, and their officers and crews disbanded and thrown out of employment, while their accustomed trade is diverted into other and cheaper channels, viz: to the Eastern cities, by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and by the way of New Orleans.

The decline of their trade commenced with the opening of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to Parkesburg, and for many months past there has been an average of sixty five steamboats laid up in the port of Pittsburg for want of business, and suffering a greater deterioration in value than if fully employed, though the Ohio river has been constantly in good navigable condition.

These boats wear out in five years, the cost (of the sixty-five,) is one million seven hundred dollars, and the number of their un-employed, crews is two thousand; two hundred and seventy-five men. The expense of running them—for wages, fuel, provisions, &c.,—exceeds one million five hundred thousand dollars per year, which is chiefly expended in the Commonwealth for its products.

In the struggle to retain the trade on the Pennsylvania route, the rate of freight from Cincinnati to Pittsburg, (a distance of five hundred miles,) has been reduced to five dollars per ton, while the Tonnage Tax, imposed by the Commonwealth on all freight passing over the Pennsylvania Railroad, amounts to nearly half this sum

At equal rates the Pennsylvania route enjoys a decided preference with shippers, but when the markets are not unduly excited, a difference in the cost of transportation, no matter how small, decides the route.

With two hundred miles longer river navigation and a Tonnage Tax of nearly one dollar per ton against us, it is not possible to maintain the business on the Ohio river and Pennsylvania Railroad route.

Your petitioners would find immediate relief by reduction of the rates of freight over the Pennsylvania Railroad, and to this end they pray your honorable bodies for the repeal of the Tonnage Tax.

BURIED ALIVE.—A Distressing Case.—A letter, says the Baltimore Sun, dated Holland, Erie county, Pa., March 15, says:

A very afflictive dispensation of Providence has taken place within twenty miles of this place. A Presbyterian minister named Reed was going to attend a meeting of the presbytery. He stopped over night with another minister at a private house. Mr. Reed was taken with a fit in the night and it was supposed he had died. The other minister being in a hurry to get to the meeting in season had him buried the next day. On his return from meeting he left word at Oxford that their minister was dead and buried. His friends went immediately to get his remains and bring them to Oxford when to their great sorrow they discovered that he had been buried alive. The cover of the coffin was split, and his shroud was completely torn off and he was turned nearly on his face. He was a bachelor, and a very worthy man. His dreadful death is much lamented.

A TERRIBLE LEAGUE.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Times, speaking of the late attempted assassination of Louis Napoleon, says:

"It is reported that one of the prisoners, Rudio, has turned State's evidence, and that, in his confession, he has revealed a plot that does not offer a very smiling prospective for the Emperor. According to Rudio's confession, the conspirators were five hundred in number.—They are bound to their work by a terrible oath, and their object is the assassination of Louis Napoleon. Each year, or oftener, if circumstances will warrant the attempt, the whole band are to draw lots from a box, in which there will be five winning numbers.—The five members drawing these are held to put in immediate execution an attempt upon the Emperor's life, which shall be approved by the whole society, and by those who are charged with its execution.

OUR BLACK LIST.

I PAID THE PRINTER! Ha! Ha!

I AM SORRY I DIDN'T!

CAREFULLY COMPILED BY THE EDITORS!

COMMENTS BY "SLEM!"

Published for the protection of our brethren of the Press and the Public generally.

SWAYED NEITHER BY FEAR, FAVOR, NOR AFFECTION, WE SHALL SPEAK OF MEN AS WE FIND THEM.

The following named individuals have "victimized" us to the tune of the amounts set opposite to their names.—Our brethren of the Press and the Public generally will do well to be on their guard while dealing with them. He who would cheat the printer would scruple at nothing.

T. & L. LAMBERT & Co., Philadelphia, $2 50.
These contemptible scoundrels, as Advertising Agents for a Cider Press, patronized us to the above tune. If we ever come across them in we'll press their miserable carcasses into their original nothingness.

DAVID AXE, $2 50.
Mr. Axe is another of our honest patrons. He victimized us out of the above sum, and sloped without axe-ing us for a settlement. That Axe was rather sharp for us.

RICHARD ALLEN $2 50.
This gent graduated in rascality at our expense.

J. J BOTOFF. $2 50.
This gent should not be called "Bought-off" but "Slope-off." If he is not good, on a buy he is on a sell. We have one consolation, however, and that is that he wont be able to cheat the Devil.

M. BOTTOFF, Bellefonte, Pa. $3 00.
We don't know whether this chap is related to the other Bottoff or not. If he ain't he ought to be, and if he is he's a credit to the family.

J. A. BRADLEY, Cressons, Pa., $4 00.
This 'sneak' sneakingly sneaked off, leaving us to console ourselves as we best could. He is such a veritable "sneak" that he would sell his soul (a very small one) for a "fip" (a big price) and after pocketing the money sneak out of the bargain.

THOS, ROY, $2 50.
This promising young man promised to pay us but didn't. He has lately been married in Reading. Poor fellow! his punishment soon overtook him.

A. S. MCCLINTOCK, Patterson, Pa. $3 00.
This is another of our honest patrons. Such a small-souled wretch is not worth a longer notice.

P. FLANIGAN, Pittsburgh, Pa., $3 00.
This representative of the great "Flanigan family" walked into our affections "a feet." "Fire away Flanigan," but please don't "hit" us in future.

MOSES DOUTY, ESQUIRE, $6 75.
Cheating us out of the above snug sum, affords a fair specimen of the manner in which Moses dispensed justice, and how well qualified he was to discharge the duties of his office. After imparting the eye-sight of quite a number of our citizens, he "eloped" for Baltimore, leaving a host of friends to mourn their loss. We commend him to the "Plug Uglies," "Rip Raps," &c., as a fit recruit for their ranks.

E. A. C. DOUTY, $4 00.
This lazy puppy is a 'chip of the old block," who exemplifies the truth of the old adages "like daddy like child," and "what is bred in the bone won't come out of the flesh." He also has "eloped" to the more congenial atmosphere of Baltimore. "Good riddance to bad rubbish."

Dr. W. E. HOYT, Syracuse, N. Y., $7 50.
This impudent quack bled us to the above tune for advertising. He is an arrant knave, who, making his living by means of the Press, is mean enough to cheat printers. We hope, when sick, he may be quacked to death by some brother quack.

Rev. W. S. H. KEYS, Tyrone, Pa., $2 00.
This political parson who sports the "cambric" extensively, owes us the above sum for printing Notices to K. N. Councils, stating his terms for lecturing before them. We should think that his "Intense Americanism" should lead him to pay his honest debts. We hand him over to the tender mercy of his conscience—if he has any—if not, to that of his friend and prototype ——— ———.

L. PALMER & Co., Travelling Opticians, $1 50.
The above firm was composed of a couple of precious rascals, as "dutch as sour crout," who passed themselves off as opticians. Whether they were or not we don't know, but we do know, that instead of improving the sight of our "peepers," they effectually "closed them up."

CUMMINGS & Co., Travelling Ambrotypists, $1 25.
This is another pair of contemptible knaves. Their skill was strikingly exemplified in our sad experience, they having left an indelible impression on our memory, that we were the victims of misplaced confidence.

RICHARD WHITE, $1 00.
This falsely named gent has left town without settling up with us, thus leaving a black record against him on our books, and getting his name on our black list. It is not the only black act he has been guilty of.

A. CLARKE, $1 50.
We suppose this gent had not time to settle this small bill before leaving, as he left town about a hundred yards ahead of the constable, making 2,40 time.

G. W. TRYON, $2 50.
This gent tried us on to the above tune, and then put us off by abequatulating without paying.

THOS. LEE, JR., left town owing us $2 50.
LANG & WAGNER do. 4 25.
DANIELLS W. GARDNER, do. 2 50.
L. KARG, do. 3 00.
A. J. ANDERSON, do. 1 00.

☞ The above is only the first chapter of our "Life Pictures." We have ample material for a dozen more, which will appear in due time.

HOLLIDAYSBURG WALL PAPER DEPOT.—J. M. HEWIT invites persons wishing to purchase PAPER HANGINGS to call and examine his new stock, which he gets direct from the Manufacturers, thus saving one profit for passing through second hands.

ITCH! ITCH!! ITCH!!! ITCH!!!!—BARNES' ITCH OINTMENT is the only remedy which thoroughly cures that dreaded disease—the SEVEN YEARS' ITCH—no case proving to be too great an extent. The usual remedies, such as Brimstone, Tar and Precipitate Ointments, are of no use. Many who have used them have been compelled to use Barnes' Itch Ointment, and found it the only cure. It is now the only remedy in which physicians place any reliance.

FROSTED FEET.
Jack Frost has re-commenced his reign and BARNES' REMEDY FOR FROSTED FEET is the only one that will cure those whom he has attacked. Apply this remedy for a few days and a cure will be effected. The first application gives relief. It has cured cases where the skin has bursted.

RHEUMATISM.
The celebrated Liniment, called HYDER ALI MIXTURE, has cured more cases of Rheumatism than any other known. For the cure of Pains in the Side, Limbs and Back, Sore Throat, Swellings of the Joints, and Limbs, Sprains and Bruises, it has no equal. As a Liniment for Horses, in curing Galls, Cuts, Scratches, Swellings, and all other external injuries, Bone Spavin only excepted, all who have used it give it the preference over all others.

COUGHS AND COLDS.
BARNES' COUGH SYRUP, composed entirely of Vegetables, is a sure cure for Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis, it is without any exception, the best remedy known, of which fact the thousands can testify. It will be found the best remedy that can be used for children.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Is, no doubt, the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, gray hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all scrofula, and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, etc. It will cure, as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache; make the hair soft, glossy and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling, to extreme old age. The following is from a distinguished member of the medical profession;

ST. PAUL, January 1, 1855.
PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir:—Unsolicited, I send you this certificate. After being nearly bald for a long time, and having tried all the hair restoratives extant, and having no faith in any, I was induced, on hearing of yours, to give it a trial. I placed myself in the hands of a barber, and had my head rubbed with a good stiff brush, and the restorative then applied and well rubbed in, till the scalp was aglow. This I repeated every morning, and in three weeks the young hair appeared and grew rapidly from August last till the present time, and is now thick, black and strong—soft and pleasant to the touch; whereas, before, it was harsh and wiry, what little there was of it, and that little was disappearing very rapidly. I still use your Restorative about twice a week, and shall soon have a good and perfect crop of hair. Now I had read all these things—and who has not? but have not seen hitherto any case where any person's hair was really benefitted by any of the hair tonic, etc., of the day; and it really gives me pleasure to record the result of my experience. I have recommended your preparation to others, and it already has a large and general sale throughout the Territory. The people here know its effects and have confidence in it. The supply for me as as wholesale agents for the Territory, is nearly exhausted, and daily inquiries are made for it. You deserve credit for your discovery, and I, for one, return you my thanks for the benefit it has done me, for I certainly had despaired long ago of effecting any such result. Yours, heartily,
J. W. BOND.

BOSTON, March 2, 1855.
DEAR SIR:—Having become prematurely quite gray, I was induced, some six weeks since, to make a trial of your Restorative. I have used less than two bottles, but the gray hairs have all disappeared; and although my hair has not fully attained its original color, yet the process of change is gradually going on, and I am in great hopes that in a short time my hair will be as dark as formerly. I have also been much gratified at the healthy moisture and vigor of the hair, which before was harsh and dry; and it has ceased to come out as formerly.
Respectfully yours, D. C. M. RAPE.

CARLYLE, Illinois, June 19, 1855.
I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restorative, it has resumed its original color, and have no doubt, permanently so. SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

ONLY ONE BOTTLE OF DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR OR LIVER REMEDY,
Is required to cure any one troubled with Liver Complaints, even the most desperate of cases, when the second bottle will, with scarce a single failure, restore the patient to health and vigor. We wish to call the attention of all to these facts, that the Invigorator is compounded by a physician who has used it in his practice for the last twenty years with a success almost credulous, and it is entirely vegetable, being composed wholly of gums.
Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel without any of its deleterious effects.
One bottle is the surest thing known to carry away the bad effects of mineral poison of any kind.
Only one bottle of it is needed to throw out of the system the effect of medicine after a long sickness.
One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.
One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.
Only one dose taken before retiring prevents nightmare.
One dose taken at night loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.
One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose of two tea-spoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.
One bottle taken for female obstructions removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.
Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while one dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a sure preventative of Cholera.
One dose taken often will prevent the recurrence of bilious attacks, while it relieves all painful feelings.
☞ One or two doses taken occasionally is one of the best remedies for cold ever known.
Thousands of cures of inflammation and weakness of the lungs have been cured by the Invigorator.
One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes food digest well.
One dose often repeated cures Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while summer and bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.
One or two doses cures attacks caused by worms, while for worms in children, there is no surer, safer and speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.
There is no exaggeration in these statements, they are plain and sober facts, that we can give evidence to prove, while all who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.
We wish all who are sick and debilitated to try this remedy, and test it thoroughly, and any who are not benefited by its use we should like to here from, as we have yet to hear from the first person who has used a bottle of Invigorator without receiving benefit, for there are such astonishing medicinal virtues in it, that all, no matter how long they have been affected, if their complaint arises from a deranged liver, will be benefited, if not entirely cured.

A BRUTE IN HUMAN SHAPE.—Some four months ago a man named Charles W. Crane, with a wife and one child came to this place. Being in very destitute circumstances, with a wife and child to support, (the former of whom was enciente and within a few weeks of being delivered,)—he diligently sought employment in our town. He had taken boarding with a family in town, but at the end of a week, having failed to obtain work and being unable to pay up was turned with his family out of doors. In this sad plight he enlisted in his behalf the sympathies of one of our citizens, Mr. W. A. B. Laub, who kindly furnished Crane and family with shelter and support in his own house, and by personal solicitations secured for him a berth as fireman on the road. Nor did his generosity stop here, after he had procured Crane steady work and good wages, he vacated one of the rooms in his house, which he furnished at his own cost, and stocked the larder with a sufficiency of the necessaries of life, to last the family until his first month's wages became due.

To an honorable man such kind treatment on the part of a stranger would have proved a strong incentive to labor late and early to repay such generosity, and to place himself and family above the reach of want. But it is clearly evident by the conduct of Crane, that he is not entitled to to that appellation. Although he has worked diligently and steadily ever since earning most of the time as high as $1,50 a day, yet with the exceptions of a few paltry dollars, not the one-fifth part of the sum expended in his behalf, he still owes his benefactor for the outlay in his behalf.

But that is not the extent of his depravity.—Although free from habits of dissipation he was a perfect tyrant in the treatment of his wife, frequently beating her in the most shameful manner, without any cause. Although some six weeks ago she was brought to child-bed, and delivered of a fine healthy-looking child, yet this brute refused to wait on her, or get any one else to do so, compelling her to get up, and attend to all her duties, even when in her weakest state.—Had it not been for the kind assistance of Mrs. Laub, who rendered her what little attention she could spare from her own family, the poor woman might have perished

Thus things continued until Sunday last, when Crane without any provocation set upon his wife and after knocking her down, beat her in a most shameful manner. Mr. Laub hearing the noise went in and asked what was wrong.—Crane replied that his wife and he were merely cutting up. The poor woman denied his statement and said he had beat her. Mr. Laub remonstrated with the unnatural husband on his brutality, and told him if he attempted any more violence towards his wife, he (Laub) would give him a lesson he wouldn't soon forget. Crane said he would not touch her any more, but as soon as Mr. Laub left the house he recommenced his brutality, and lest the poor woman should give any alarm he menaced her with a razor, threatening to cut her throat if she screamed. He then beat her again in a most shocking manner, which the poor victim was compelled, under dread of death, to endure without a murmur.

On Monday last this inhuman monster collecting all the money due him by the company, and what he had on hand, told his wife he was going to fire an engine to Conemaugh. Mr. Laub, on inquiry, found that he had "drawn his time" from Mr. Vaughan, and had doubtless run off. He telegraphed to Conemaugh describing him, and requesting his detention. But the heartless brute deceived the parties there who had stopped him, by cooly telegraphing back here to his wife, that he was merely going to Johnstown, and would remain there a week with her father. He then started for Johnstown, but at that station got on one of the trains and went on to Pittsburgh. Since then nothing has been heard of him.

His poor wife, left without a cent to buy even milk for her infant, and with two small children to support, is in a truly pitiable condition. On Tuesday she was perfectly crazy, running around town until prevented by some kind-hearted persons, who took her in charge. She deserves and ought to receive relief at the hands of the Relief Association, and of our citizens generally.—Except for the mere matter of support she is infinitely better without than with her brutal husband.

Crane is a man about 5 feet 10 inches high, will weigh about 145 pounds; light complected; sandy haired; hooked nosed, and when rapidly speaking slightly stutters. He is a shoe-maker by trade, and has passed among his acquaintances here by the name of "Baltimore Charley." He boasts of being a great lady's man. The public will do well to be on their guard against this scoundrel as apart from his brutality he is not to be trusted.

DUFF'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE, PITTSBURGH.—This institution commends itself to the patronage of the public, not only on account of the superiority of its training for business, but having for its principal a man of acknowledged ability, as a teacher, as a lecturer, as an author, and as a business man; also for attaining a splendid rapid business hand writing. Mr. J. S. Duncan, the principal teacher in the writing department and author of "Gems of business and ornamental Penmanship," stands at the head of his profession. His "Gems" are designed to conduct the learner from the first rude efforts of the pen, to a high degree of proficiency in the art, indispensable to the book-keeper and man of business. The specimens of chirography in this work are not intended to be mere curiosities of a splendid skill; they are designed to subserve a practical purpose, and by their aid the pupil who has, under the instruction of a practical teacher, attained the first rudiments of writing can, with ordinary perseverance and determination, readily perfect himself in the art, without any further instruction than this book supplies. A copy of this splendid work is presented to every student who graduates in this institution.

COMPLIMENTARY.—At a late meeting of the Board of School Directors, of the Borough held in the office of Thos. Burchinell, Esq, the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved. That the thanks of the members of this Board be tendered to our retiring President, Thos. Burchinell Esq., for the acts of kindness shown us, in voluntarily tendering us the use of his office for holding our meetings, and also that the thanks of the citizens of this place are due him for his untiring energies in the cause of education and for his valuable services rendered during his term of office.

Mr. Burchinell replied to the resolution in a few very feeling and appropriate remarks.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to have the above resolution published.

IRON CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, PITTSBURG, PA.—But few are aware of the extensive arrangements required by this Institution, to accommodate the large number of young men who attend here to gain a business education as advertised in circular. It is a model Counting-House of four large Halls, 20 feet by 40 feet—38×70—22×80—43×80. These rooms are well furnished and occupied by about 300 students, taught by a large Faculty of fourteen experienced teachers and practical business men. Specimens of Writing and Circulars sent free of charge.

Address F. W. Jenkins, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE NEW ROCHELLE BLACKBERRY.—On our first page will be found an article in which the views of several eminent horticulturalists, in regard to the superiority of this berry over all others of the kind, and the soil and training most conducive to its speedy growth and bearing, are given. In our advertising columns will be found the card of James Wardrop, of Pittsburg, who will furnish the plants at the prices stated in the card. Those of our citizens who desire to cultivate a useful article should not fail to purchase a number of these plants.

☞ Attention is requested to the advertisement of the "New York Weekly," in another column. This paper is making a bold push to supplant the "New York Ledger," and succeeds admirably. The story just commenced promises to be interesting to those who are fond of light reading. From the reputation of the writer, Mr. Smith, we believe it will be all that is claimed for it. The "Weekly" can be had every Thursday morning at Fettinger's Literary Emporium.

MEDICAL NOTICE.—The undersigned having associated themselves together in the Practice of Medicine and Surgery, respectfully offer their professional services to the citizens of Altoona and vicinity. By this arrangement our patrons can have the advantage of two experienced physicians without any additional charge. Office the same as heretofore occupied by Dr. Hirst.

☞ Country Practice will be promptly and regularly attended to.

C. J. HIRST, M. D.
D. R. GOOD, M. D.

Dr. Hirst begs leave to return his grateful acknowledgements to his friends for the liberal patronage they have heretofore favored him with and respectfully solicit a continuance of the same for himself and partner.

He deems it proper to state that Dr. G. has had fine opportunities to become well acquainted with the nature and proper management of the various diseases incident to our country—and has been actively engaged in the study and practice of his profession for eight years—is a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and also of the Obstetrical Institute of Philadelphia; and was formerly an assistant physician in the Lying-in Hospital of that city.

Altoona, April 1st, 1858.

LUNG DISEASES. We invite the careful attention of all persons afflicted with coughs or colds to the following certificate by Mr. John C. Little, of Peebles Tp., in this county. Mr. L. is one of our most respectable citizens, and voluntarily called on Dr. Keyser, and offered his certificate to the facts stated below:—Pittsburgh Post, January 2, 1858.

GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles tp., Allegheny County.—I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued for eight months. I employed the best physicians in the County, and my cough continued unabated; until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did; and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from coughing and spitting I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

BARNES' MEDICINE.—Probably one of the greatest discoveries in medicine is the Pile Lotion of Dr. Barnes' manufacture. The Piles have baffled the skill of the ablest Physicians, and a permanent cure was, by them, considered out of the question. Persons who have used this celebrated Lotion have been permanently cured. The severest case cured by it was that of James Worrell, Esq., Secretary of the Camden & Amboy R. R. He had been afflicted for over thirty years, and for the past eleven years has not had a recurrence of the disease. Those who suffer with this dreadful disease need no longer despair of being cured.

REMOVED.—Lowther & McDowell have removed their store to the room formerly occupied by Ferree & Morrow. Call and see them.

HOME CORRESPONDENCE.

[From Our Own Correspondents.]

HOLLIDAYSBURG, March 20, 1858.

On the 15th inst., a meeting of our citizens was held in the Court House in this place, for the purpose of adopting measures for the relief of the poor. The meeting, I believe, was well attended. Committees were appointed; resolutions drawn up and submitted and a plan devised, to assist the necessitous these trying times. It is as follows: The appointment of a committee of ten (five ladies and five gentlemen) who are to collect money and provisions and find out who are the needy and relieve them; also, a Treasurer, who is to receive all the money collected; and the selection of another committee to inquire who are in need of employment and do all in their power to obtain it for them. By this means their condition will be greatly ameliorated.

The "Gutta-percha" pen man escaped the irons and protection of our sheriff, but not of the officer of Clinton county. I had been informed that our county had the preference, but it seems Clinton enjoys the extreme honor. Hope however that justice will be there, as it doubtless would have been here.

A bold and successful burglary was committed last week in this place, Dr. Johnson was the sufferer by it. His residence as is supposed, was entered by the thief, or thieves, through a back window, some very valuable clothing and such articles of provisions as could be easily secured, were carried off, I heard this morning that some trace of the missing articles had been discovered. It would be equally agreeable to ascertain who appropriated them.

It is disagreeable to chronicle a rowdy spirit which seems to characterize the young men of our town. For two or three weeks past, parties of from twenty to forty persons have paraded our streets in the evening, under the influence of liquor, singing obscene songs and passing ungentlemanly jests. In one or two instances they have almost made "night hideous" with their yells and noise. On last evening the performance was really disgraceful. It happened that several persons had been joined in the connubial knot, and these gallant and jovial sprigs thought that a serenade after their own glorious (?) fashion would be acceptable. And cap-a-pie with tin pans, a board and box pretty well rosined and other musical implements vocal and instrumental, they proceeded to the residences of the several happy couples and gave them the benefit of their wonderfully grand and entertaining performance, although they were not the exclusively entertained, as the strains and overpowering sweetness of the music reached the neighbors and no doubt disturbed their slumbers.

This may be sport in the estimation of some, but a little incident in the performance above mentioned will doubtless meet the disapprobation of all. At one of the places serenaded, some daring spirit attempted, and I think succeeded in raising one of the windows and using disreputable and offensive language to the indwellers and to the bride particularly. The proper officer should see that these proceedings are stopped.

Last Friday week an effort was made to break into the store of Mr. Miller, in the Diamond square. Thanks to the strength of the store door, the perpetrator or perpetrators were unable to effect an entrance, 'Tis a pity that all the doors and windows and every other means through which burglars effect their foul and wicked deeds, did not oppose them and render their efforts futile.

The Penn'a R. R. Company, are engaged in the erection of a large and commodious warehouse, alongside of the old packet slip, near the basin This will be quite an improvement and of great advantage to the Company, inasmuch as it will supply a defect that has long existed.

There is some talk of the establishment of a High School in this place. It is greatly needed and would be a benefit to the town. The proposal is good, and I am glad to learn that efforts are being made to put it through.

Our regular Court will commence on Monday the 26th of April. Those who have business at that term ought to keep the time in distinct remembrance, in order to attend to all preliminary matters that may be necessary.

The "Utah fever" is raging very high in our town. It seems to be the principal topic of conversation among a certain class, but most of them wind up with some proviso, and are generally troubled and perplexed with that little word "if" which is so hard to get over. But one or two persons have had sufficient determination and the opportunity to start.

VERITAS.

SPRINGFIELD FURNACE, March 27, 1858.

Since I last wrote you, I have been looking over the "Cove" to see what I might find of general interest, but I have failed in finding material enough to get up a sublime letter and will therefore content myself with a regular off-hand affair. However I would not omit to mention that I have visited two more Schools of which I must say a little.

The first is the School of Martinsburg under the care and instruction of Mr. Herbst. About thirty-five pupils were present, and a finer looking body of Scholars is hard to find. Several classes were called to the floor during my stay, and I felt myself well entertained by giving my attention to their performances. I was very much pleased to notice the taste of the teacher in his manner of instructing, and would certainly say that the people of Martinsburg would do well to continue their present teacher as long as they can keep him.

The second was the Boy's High School of Williamsburg, taught by the venerable Prof. John Miller. Mr. M—— has been engaged in the above named place during the past eleven years, which certainly speaks loudly in his favor. And to visit his school is a pleasure of no ordinary nature. Several classes of readers and spellers were listened to with pleasure, but the class in "Mental Arithmetic," took the "palm." It was the best class that I have ever had the pleasure of listening to, and it certainly speaks volumes of praise for the Prof. May he be spared to usefulness for long years to come, and may the honor due an old and experienced teacher be accorded to him.

The Rail-Road of which I spoke sometime ago, is now under cantract and in process of completion.

Our merchants and mechanics are beginning to complain of the "hard times," and some of the former class are making wry-faces. I am informed that my friend Dr. D. R. Good is about to locate in your town, in partnership with Dr. Hirst. I have always heard that Dr. Hirst was looked upon as an excellent Physician and a gentleman, and I can assure him that his prospects will not be blighted by his new association. I can say from experimental knowledge that Dr. Good possesses a thorough acquaintance with the "healing art," and from association I have every reason to believe that he is a gentleman of the "first water." If you have any doubts just get sick, or your arm broke and then try him, or both of them. "Long may they wave." ALPHA.

ARCH SPRING, March 29, 1858.

The day upon which many change their places of residence is almost here, and already they are making preparations for their removal. Some only remove to a neighboring dwelling, others to a distant town, county or State. Although this is a pleasant portion of the year, yet it is a sad one to many.

At this time more than at any other, many are called to part with those they love and leave the scenes made almost sacred by the transactions of their youthful days. In this place there are only two families that will not "pull up stakes"—the others leave for different parts.—Perhaps this will not seem strange when I tell you that there are only five dwelling-houses here, and one of these is vacant; so that after all only two families are going to leave us, in whose stead others are coming.

I am sorry that a bitter controversy has been waging for several weeks past between "Alpha" and "Mac." Surely, such language as that contained in several of their communications can do no good, but tend only to fan the flame of discord and contention and cause a still greater estrangement. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Perhaps this is the last scrawl I shall be able to send you from this place. Ere ten days shall have passed I will be preparing to take my departure for another scene of action. Since I have been among this people I have found many friends and no open enemies. I believe two or three have attempted to injure me under the veil of secrecy from sinister motives; but such covert acts of cowardice have been passed by unnoticed, esteeming their reproaches of as much value as their praises.

"They may scorn me, if they choose—I care
But little for their scuffings. I may sink
For moments; but I rise again, nor shrink
From what the faithful heart inspires.
I will not flatter, fawn, nor crouch, nor wink
At what high-mounted wealth or power desires:
I have a loftier aim, to which my soul aspires."

I leave this place with regret, partly from the fact of its beautiful scenery, and partly because I shall leave behind many warm friends.

"We must part awhile:
——but yet
We must endure it."

Long will their kindness and hospitality be remembered. Their pleasant smiles, their kindly spoken words and their manly actions will ever be appreciated; and the months spent in their midst will be considered as one of the pleasant spots in my existence—an oasis in my life. Vive, Vale. STANS.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.—We would call your attention to the advertisement of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, which appears in the columns of our present number.

From our long acquaintance with the proprietor, and with numerous individuals who have used his preparation with perfect success for the last two years, we feel no hesitation in recommending the article as superior to any of the preparations now in use for the same purpose, viz: for restoring gray hair to its original color, a sure and perfect cure for baldness, and a never-failing preventative for the failing of the hair.

It is decidedly the best and most popular in use for beautifying, preserving, restoring and strengthening the hair, relieving diseases of the skin, and removing scurff, dandruff, and all eruptions and feverish heat from the scalp.

We speak in relation to the above from what we know, having been personally acquainted with numerous persons who have used the restorative for the above purposes with the most gratifying results.

It is not often we notice a patent medicine. Indeed, we think we have never puffed one before; but Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative is something so superior to most of the preparations of the day, that we cannot forbear asking the attention of our readers to it.—(Catholic Vindicator.

For dressing Ladies Hair it has no equal, giving it a bright glossy appearance. It causes Gentlemen's Hair to curl in the most natural manner. It removes the dandruff, always giving the Hair the appearance of being fresh shampooed, Price only fifty cents. None genuine unless signed FETRIDGE & CO. THE PANIC—MORE FAILURES.—The panic in New York seems to be on the increase. In this city everything goes on smoothly, and the only failures we have heard of were the failures to furnish good fits made by some inferior clothing establishments. There is no such difficulty to be encountered by those who patronize the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill and Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street, above sixth. Gentleman and youths never fail to procure capital fits at this popular establishment.

☞ A CARD—TO THE LADIES.—DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN FRENCH PILLS are infallible in removing stopages and irregularities of the menses. These Pills are nothing new but have been used by the doctors for many years, both in France and America, with unparelled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities of whatever nature, as well as to prevent pregnancy to to those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family.—Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the Proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition altho' their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box. Price $1 per box. Sold wholesale and retail by G. W. KESSLER, General Agent for Altoona and vicinity. He will supply dealers at proprietor's prices, and send the Pills to ladies (confidentially) by return mail on receipt of $1 through the Altoona Post Office.

50 "	8,00	1 "	50

The "Springfield Republican," of Massachusetts, says: "It is the Queen of all berries, of most magnificent proportions, exquisite flavor and delicate texture."

Extract from the proceedings of the American Pomological Society, held in Boston:

Mr. CABOT, of Mass. "I wish to inquire about the New Rochelle Blackberry."

Rev. WM. CLEEZ, of Stonington, states: "The New Rochelle Blackberry has fruited with me for the first time this season: it fulfills all its promises, which is all that could be said of it. Coming just after Raspberries, it prolongs the season of small fruits a month or more, and it is a great acquisition. It deserves a place in every garden."

Mr. PINE, of New York. "It is the most remarkable acquisition; very sweet and delicious indeed, and the hardiest plant possible."

Mr. MAHAUX, of New York. "It is very large, tender and delicious. I think it is the greatest acquisition we have had."

Mr. CLARK, of Conn. "I never saw anything more productive."

Mr. SAUL, of New York, "I can corroborate what others have said."

Mr. PRINCE, of New York. "It is a most remarkable acquisition of the Blackberry kind—very sweet and delicious indeed; a great bearer, and the hardiest plant possible."

(Jno. GARNEL, Esq., of Stonington, Conn. "It has fruited with me for the first time this season. It fulfills all its promises, and deserves a place in every garden."

Mr Knox who has five acres in cultivation exhibited at season some of the fruit before the Pittsburgh Horticultural Society. The Pittsburgh Chronicle says: "Many of our citizens visited the rooms of the Society with a view of examining Mr. Knox's collection, and those who were fortunate enough to see it expressed their admiration in no measured terms." The Society awarded the exhibition a diploma.

Orders addressed to Rev. J. KNOX, or the subscriber, and accompanied with the cash, or a suitable reference where the parties are not known, will be filled in the order in which they are received.

PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The numbers from 1 to 50,000, corresponding with those numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are encircled in small tin tubes and placed in one Wheel.

The first 457 Prizes, similarly printed and encircled, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of Numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The number and prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners; the Prize being placed against the number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out.

APPROXIMATION PRIZES.—The two preceeding and the two succeeding numbers to those drawing the first 7 Prizes will be entitled to the 28 Approximation Prizes. For example: If Ticket No. 11250 draws the $70,000 Prize, those tickets numbered 11,248, 11,249, 11,251, 11252, will each be entitled to $400. If Ticket No. 550 draws the $30,000 Prize, those tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to $300, and so on according to the above scheme.

The 5,000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figures of the number that draws the $70,000 Prize. For example: If the number drawing the $70,000 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the tickets, where the number ends in 1, will be entitled to $20. If the number ends with No. 2, then all the tickets where the number ends in 2 will be entitled to $20, and so on to 0.

Certificates of Packages will be sold at the following rates which is the risk:

Certificate of package of	10 Whole Tickets,	$80

S. S. DUNCAN, one of the best penmen in the country, (author of the gems of business and ornamental penmanship,) Professor of Penmanship.

Duff's system of Book-keeping is sanctioned by the American Institute and Chamber of Commerce of New York, and many of the leading business men of the East and West, as the most comprehensive and practical system of accounts now in use, and after from ten to fifteen years practical application of its principles to business, over four hundred students have attested its superiority, (circular 10.) All the arrangements for teaching being perfected by near twenty years' experience of the principal, students graduate in about half the time required in other colleges, saving $15 or $20 in board.

Upwards of 4000 students have entered the institution since founded. To obtain full particulars of the collegiate training for business and the character of the institution, send for its pamphlet circular of 50 pages, with samples of Mr. Duncan's writing which are mailed free.

DUFF'S BOOK KEEPING, Harper's new enlarged edition, $1,50, postage 20c. DUFF'S STEAMBOAT BOOK-KEEPING, $1,00, postage 9c. DUNCAN'S BUSINESS AND ORNAMENTAL PENMANSHIP, crown quarto, $2,00, mailed post-paid. This splendid work and Duff's Book-keeping, have recently been awarded FIFTEEN FIRST PREMIUM SILVER MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS, attesting the fact of their being the best treatise upon these subjects now in use.

An elegantly bound copy of Duncan's Penmanship is presented to every student who hereafter graduates in the institution.

DUNCAN'S COPY BOOKS, complete in six numbers, 24 quarto pages each, on fine Demy paper, with the author's directions for teaching, the most thorough system for school instruction published, 12½c. per number, with a liberal discount to the trade. mailed postage 17 cents. on application to the publishers, W. GREAT DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES, the great Substitute for Tobacco.

It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood changes the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Utter Bread, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES

Are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches of Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned to whom all orders should be addressed.

MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

R. FRANCE & Co., Managers.

CAUTION NOTICE.

Persons living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every indictment is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at One Dollar. $150,000 Capital Prizes are offered, tickets $6. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is much chances thrown away, without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets. In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost or tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings of other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings are not so.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

Our ruling look to, and that is, all you order from any Licensed Vender in Baltimore, do not decide to carry but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographed signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send us his individual certificates, and if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

CONSUMPTION
DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND THROAT
ARE POSITIVELY
Curable by Inhalation,

which conveys the remedies to the cavities in the lungs through the air passages, and coming in direct contact with the disease, neutralizes the tubercular matter, allays the cough, causes a free and easy expectoration, heals the lungs, purifies the blood, imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving that tone and energy so indispensable for the restoration of health. To be able to state confidently that Consumption is curable by inhalation, is to me a source of unalloyed pleasure. It is as much under the control of medical treatment as any other formidable disease: ninety out of every hundred cases can be cured in the first stages, and fifty per cent. in the second; but in the third stage it is impossible to save more than five per cent., for the Lungs are so cut up by the disease as to bid defiance to medical skill. Even, however, in the last stages, Inhalation affords extraordinary relief to the suffering attending this fearful scourge, which annually destroys ninety-five thousand persons in the United States alone; and a correct calculation shows that of the present population of the earth, eighty millions are destined to fill the Consumptive's grave.

Truly the quiver of death has no arrow so fatal as Consumption. In all ages it has been the great enemy of life, for it spares neither age nor sex, but sweeps off alike the brave, the beautiful, the graceful and the gifted. By the help of that Supreme Being from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, I am enabled to offer to the afflicted a permanent and speedy cure in Consumption: the first cause of tubercles is from impure blood, and the immediate effect produced by their deposition in the lungs is to prevent the free admission of air into the air cells, which causes a weakened vitality through the entire system. Then surely it is more rational to expect greater good from medicines entering the cavities of the lungs than from those administered through the stomach; the patient will always find the lungs free and the breathing easy, after Inhaling remedies. Thus, Inhalation is a local remedy, nevertheless it acts constitutionally, and with more power and certainty than remedies administered by the stomach. To prove the powerful and direct influence of this mode of administration, chloroform inhaled will entirely destroy sensibility in a few minutes, paralyzing the entire nervous system, so that a limb may be amputated without the slightest pain: inhaling the ordinary burning gass will destroy life in a few hours.

The inhalation of ammonia
